

Preserve our freedom of speech and public discourse. Do not give away integrity and the public good for efficiency and economy.